Re: Confirmation of Change in Meeting Site due to Force Majeure Event

Dear Airline representative

As you may know, due to historic rainfall totals during the weekend of May 1-3, 2010, the Cumberland River in Nashville, Tennessee reached unprecedented levels, overflowing its banks and compromising the levee systems surrounding the Gaylord Opryland Resort & Convention Center. As a result, portions of the hotel have been flooded, and the hotel has been forced to close.

This letter is to acknowledge the cancellation of the 2010 MOPS International Convention meeting which was scheduled to be held at the Gaylord Opryland Resort & Convention Center on the dates of August 3 – 8, 2010 due to the occurrence of a “force majeure” event. The event has been moved to the Gaylord Palms Resort & Convention center in Orlando, Florida on the dates of August 3 – 8, 2010.

Sincerely,

MOPS International, Inc
