

Prayers from a Mother's Heart

November 2008

1. Dear God, help my child to understand her special and unique place in our family.
2. Dear God, develop within my child the strength to go to you first with all his joys and struggles.
3. Dear God, open my child's eyes to see the wonder of all you have created.
4. Dear God, instill in my child a grateful heart for all that you have done for her.
5. Dear God, make my child devoted to those around him in brotherly love. (Romans 12:10)
6. Dear God, give my child the courage to risk belief in what will last: you and your character.
7. Dear God, may my child never boast, except in you and your cross. (Galatians 6:14)
8. Dear God, when my child travels, remind her that while she may feel like a stranger, you always lead the way.
9. Dear God, help my child to appreciate quiet times of solitude as opportunities to rest, close to your heart.
10. Dear God, assure my child's doubts. Deliver answers, and more questions, that he might be continually drawn to you.
11. Dear God, give my child insight into her areas of giftedness. Lead her into experiences that will develop her gifts further for use in your world.
12. Dear God, rekindle my child's spirit. Light his faith.
13. Dear God, when she has lost her way, turn my child's eyes towards your path.
14. Dear God, give my child courage to stand against what is wrong and for what is right.
15. Dear God, extend my child's patience with himself and with others who share his weaknesses.
16. Dear God, teach my child to smile in the face of trial, knowing that you will deliver her.
17. Dear God, extend my child's patience with himself and others who share his weaknesses.
18. Dear God, remind my child to be grateful for even the smallest evidences of your work in her life.
19. Dear God, pull my child aside each day in prayer.
20. Dear God, when my child is angry, hold him back from sin. (Ephesians 4:25)
21. Dear God, please give me the patience to allow my children to grow at their own pace and love them during each stage of life.
22. Dear God, use the traditions of our family to bring security to my child's days.
23. Dear God, give my child a zeal for life and a passion to serve you unconditionally and without hesitation.
24. Dear God, move my child to commit to you all that he does, that his plans might succeed. (Proverbs 16:3)
25. Dear God, thank you that there is nowhere my child can go, that you are not there, still. (Psalm 139:7-12)
26. Dear God, teach my child the principle of quality over quantity in his friendships.
27. Dear God, grow in my child a thankful heart.
28. Dear God, assure my child that you do not expect perfection from her, but rather, a yielded and obedient heart.
29. Dear God, help me to grow in you and in my role as a mother.
30. Dear God, remind my child that he belongs to you.
