

Mentor Workshop

Friday, Elisa Morgan, Cathy Penshorn and Tracey Solomon will lead a workshop specifically about reclaiming the art of mentoring. It will inspire you to mentor right where you are, with the gifts you have, in order to lead like Jesus. (Truthfully, there are so many workshops you will love – click here to see the full list.)

Mentor Panel

Thursday will feature a panel of Mentors discussing all the things you care about most as a Mentor: How do I show up for millennial moms? Generation Z moms? What value do I have to offer to mentees, and how do I offer it? Not only that, but we'll hear from millennial moms about what they need most from a mentor.

Mentor Meet & Greet

Following the panel, MOPS Staff and volunteers would be honored to meet you and personally thank you for being a Mentor. And most importantly, we want to give you the opportunity to connect with other MOPS Mentors who are paving the way, just like you.
